

European University Cyprus

LAUREATE INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITIES

Reproductive Rights: definition & perspectives presented by Theodoros Trokanas,

Lecturer Civil Law & Biolaw, School of Law

OUTLINE

- I. Human Reproduction
- II. European Convention on Human Rights, Article 8: The right to respect for private life
- III. European Court of Human Rights case-law
- IV. Scope and extent of the right to reproduce
- V. Criteria for access to Medically Assisted Procreation
 1. Medical criterion
 2. Age criterion
 3. Social criterion
 4. Economic criterion
- VI. Conclusion

SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY

- 1) JACKSON Emily, Regulating reproduction: law, technology and autonomy, Hart Publishing, 2001
- 2) NELSON Erin, Law, Policy and Reproductive Autonomy, Hart Publishing, 2014
- 3) ROBERTSON John, Children of choice, Freedom and the new reproductive technologies, Princeton University Press, Princeton-New Jersey, 1994.